Alaska USA opens branch in Tacoma

Renton, Wash. – Alaska USA Federal Credit Union has opened a branch in Tacoma, its first in the city.

The branch is inside Safeway at North 26th Street and North Pearl Street. The branch offers a full range of credit union services, including a depository, 24-hour ATM, and a Self-Service Center, and will be open seven days a week and most holidays.

More than 40 people attended a grand opening ceremony Friday, including Tacoma Chamber Board Chair Jeffrey Brown, City Council member Anders Ibsen, members of the Chamber, and other community business leaders.

Alaska USA has opened eight branches in Washington in the past two years, and now has 27 branches in the state, from Bellingham to Olympia. The credit union opened its first branch in Washington more than 30 years ago and offers a full range of financial solutions, as well as home loans through Alaska USA Mortgage Company and insurance through Alaska USA Insurance Brokers. Anyone who lives, works, worships, or attends school in Washington can become a member of Alaska USA.
