Alaska USA recipient of 2007 Best Business Building Award

Award guidelines specify that the structure fit the theme of Palmer and the community. The building also must adapt to the overall appearance of Palmer. “The Palmer branch building, including the landscape, is an outstanding example of what Palmer would like to see in future developments,” said Palmer Mayor John Combs.

“Alaska USA is proud to be a part of the Palmer community,” said Palmer Branch Manager Deana Moore. “Being in a beautiful building is simply a bonus.”
