Alaska USA Announces Regional Vice President

Anchorage, Alaska – Alaska USA Federal Credit Union is pleased to announce the appointment of Lisa Hall (Fielder) to Regional Vice President, Interior Alaska.

Lisa will be responsible for managing seven branches, five in the Fairbanks/North Pole area, as well as Eielson and Bethel. Lisa brings more than eight years of financial institution experience to her new role, most recently as the Regional Membership Banking Manager for a large national bank in Tucson, Arizona.

Prior to that, she lived for nine years in Fairbanks. Lisa is a University of Alaska Fairbanks graduate in Communication. She and her four children enjoy living near their extended family in the Fairbanks area.

More About Alaska USA Federal Credit Union
