Alaska USA moves into Seattle’s Greenwood neighborhood

Renton, Wash. – Alaska USA Federal Credit Union is relocating one of its north Seattle branches to the Greenwood neighborhood. The Roosevelt branch, located inside Safeway at 7300 Roosevelt Way NE, will close March 25 and move to the new Greenwood location the following day.

The Greenwood branch is located inside Safeway at 8704 Greenwood Avenue N and will be open seven days a week. It offers a full range of credit union services, including an ATM and a Self-Service Terminal.

“We’ve made this transition as seamless as possible with uninterrupted service for our members. The move will also provide members in north Seattle with more options for convenient branch access, with branches on both the west and east sides of I-5,” said Bill Eckhardt, President.

All Roosevelt staff will be moving to the Greenwood branch. The Roosevelt Safeway will retain a 24-hour ATM for member convenience. Alaska USA ATMs are surcharge-free for Alaska USA members and members of the Northwest Credit Union Alliance, a network of more than 370 credit union ATMs throughout the Northwest.

Alaska USA has been in Washington for nearly 30 years and currently operates 20 branches in the state. Alaska USA Insurance Brokers and Alaska USA Mortgage Company, two companies in the Alaska USA family of financial services, also maintain offices in western Washington. Anyone who lives, works, worships, or attends school in the state of Washington is eligible for Alaska USA membership.

More about Alaska USA

Alaska USA Federal Credit Union is a member-owned, not-for-profit financial cooperative with $4.7 billion in assets and more than 440,000 members worldwide. The credit union operates 62 branches throughout Alaska, California, and Washington.

Learn more about Alaska USA at alaskausa.org.

###