Alaska USA appoints California executive team

Victorville, Calif. – Alaska USA is pleased to announce promotions in its California division.

Marci Aguayo has been promoted to Vice President, Branch Administration, California Division. She previously held the position of Regional Vice President for the High Desert region.

In her new role, she manages day-to-day operations of Alaska USA's California branch network. Aguayo brings more than 20 years of credit union experience, including nearly three years with Alaska USA. She has lived in the High Desert for more than 20 years.

Mendy Daugherty has been promoted to Vice President, Operations Center. She previously managed Alaska USA's Member Service Center in California.

She currently oversees critical operations and support staff for Alaska USA's distributed operations and member service departments. Daugherty has more than thirty years of experience with credit unions in the High Desert, and joined Alaska USA in 2009. She is a lifelong resident of the High Desert.
