Alaska USA opens first branch in Mount Vernon

Renton, Wash. – Alaska USA Federal Credit Union has opened a branch in Mount Vernon, its first in the city.

The branch is located inside Safeway at 315 E College Way and offers a full range of credit union services, including a depository, 24-hour ATM, and a Self-Service Center, and will be open seven days a week and most holidays.

Nearly 40 people attended a grand opening ceremony Friday, including leaders from the Mount Vernon Chamber of Commerce Andy Mayer, President/CEO, and Karen Miller, VP Membership Services. Also in attendance were Mike Dahm, Safeway Store Manager, Jon Holland, Alaska USA AVP Northwest Washington Area, Cindy Fry, Alaska USA VP Washington Division, and staff along with their friends and family.

Alaska USA has 28 branches in the state, from Bellingham to Olympia. The credit union opened its first branch in Washington more than 30 years ago. Anyone who lives, works, worships, or attends school in Washington can become a member of Alaska USA.
