Mortgage Loan Originator Steven Kihn receives Associate of the Year award

Anchorage, Alaska – Alaska USA Mortgage Company Mortgage Loan Originator Steven Kihn received the Associate of the Year award from the Anchorage Home Builders Association (AHBA).

The award is given to individuals that display a proven track record of hard work and dedicated service to the home building industry.

“Steve’s commitment to give back to the community and to building strong business partners is admirable,” said Colleen Harrington Baer, Regional Vice President, Alaska USA Mortgage Company. “The amount of time he devoted to the Homebuilder Association outside of work is a testament to his incredible work ethic and to his passion for the industry.”

AHBA is a non-profit, member-driven organization that promotes policies that make housing a national priority. Since 1959, AHBA has been representing the home building and remodeling industry and promoting safe, affordable housing, serving its members, the housing industry and the public at large.
