Alaska USA members and Alaska USA Foundation raise more than $71,400 in annual food drive

RENTON, WASHINGTON – Alaska USA Federal Credit Union members contributed $71,400 to support community food banks during its annual Cash for Cans® food drive.

Alaska USA Federal Credit Union and the Alaska USA Foundation teamed up for the fundraiser, collecting cash donations at Alaska USA branches. Washington branches collected $17,800, which will benefit Northwest Harvest in Seattle, Help House Food Bank in Oak Harbor, Clark County Food Bank in Vancouver, Hopelink in Redmond, 2nd Harvest Food Bank in Spokane, and the Salvation Army of Bremerton.

“Every year Alaska USA members step up in a big way to help those in need,” said Shannon Conley, Senior Vice President, Branch Administration. “Their generosity is going to help feed a lot of families and children who struggle with finding enough to eat every day.”

More About Alaska USA Foundation

Celebrating its fifteenth year, the Alaska USA Foundation was established to support 501(c)(3) charitable organizations that provide needs-based services to children, veterans, and active duty members of the military and their families. Since its inception, the Foundation has distributed over $2 million to these organizations and is honored to assist those that provide direct services in support of its mission.
