Alaska USA Federal Credit Union announces unexpected branch closure

Victorville, Calif. – After more than a decade of credit union service, the Barstow Alaska USA Federal Credit Union branch inside Vons supermarket located at 1270 E. Main Street will permanently close on Friday, May 24 at 6:00 p.m. At this time, Alaska USA Federal Credit Union has not been able to secure an alternate location due to the abrupt and unexpected nature of the Vons' closure.

We realize that members will be adversely impacted by this closure, we are confident that our online, mobile, ATM network, and shared branching services will provide the necessary coverage our members require. Enrollment for online account access can be done through www.alaskausa.org/enroll, or by calling the Member Service Center 24/7 at 800-525-9094. For a complete list of participating shared branch locations and ATMs, please visit www.co-ops.org/Shared-Branched-ATMs.

Alaska USA Federal Credit Union is working diligently to place employees affected by this closure. "Our employees are our most valuable asset and because of this, we have done everything in our power to ensure their continued employment with Alaska USA Federal Credit Union and have, in fact, extended offers to all employees" said Tom Newins, Chief Operations Officer.
