Inaugural Alaska USA Federal Credit Union Golf Invitational raises $125,000 for Local Nonprofit

Phoenix, Arizona – Playing where the pros play and supporting Cancer Support Community Arizona (CSCAZ) was the goal of 144 golfers as they participated in the Inaugural Alaska USA Federal Credit Union Golf Invitational November 2. The tournament was the opening day charity event for the PGA Tour Champions Charles Schwab Cup Championship held November 2-8 at the historic Phoenix Country Club.

“The communities in which we serve are vitally important to us, so we can’t thank the sponsors, golfers and volunteers enough for helping us benefit Cancer Support Community Arizona in a fun yet safe and socially distant manner,” said Todd Pearson, Regional President for Alaska USA Federal Credit Union.

This sold-out event raised $125,000 to support CSCAZ’s mission of ensuring that all people impacted by cancer are empowered by knowledge, strengthened by action and sustained by community. For one of the presenting sponsors, this invitational’s beneficiary impacted them greatly.

“We’re proud to have been a presenting sponsor of the Inaugural Alaska USA Federal Credit Union Golf Invitational and have appreciated our close partnership with Alaska USA,” said Brandon Dewitt, Co-founder and Chief Technology Officer at MX. “As a cancer survivor myself, I was honored to represent MX and play in the tournament to raise awareness and critical funds for Cancer Support Community Arizona.”
