

Working Benefits

✓ Add to your benefits package ✓ Exclusive discounts for your employees ✓ No-cost program

Attract and retain top employees with a benefits package that includes low-fee credit union accounts, and exclusive discounts on financial services.

Employees are an essential resource and providing competitive benefits helps you attract and retain the best.

Alaska USA provides you with an easy, effective way to give additional benefits to your employees, both now and in the future.

Qualifying for the Working Benefits program

In order to qualify, businesses must process direct deposit of employee payroll from their Alaska USA business checking account using UltraBranch® Business Edition's online ACH payment tool.

Eligible employees must have an Alaska USA checking account into which they receive a direct deposit at least once a month from a qualifying employer.

Variety of benefits for your employees

Your employees can sign up for any number of the following benefits:

- Convenience Checking – no monthly fee with direct deposit or low minimum balance
- Free first box of standard checks
- Free UltraBranch online account access with Bill Pay
- Free Visa® Check Card
- Visa Platinum Credit Card with reward points and no annual fee when the cardholder has Alaska USA checking
- Free coverage for accidental death and dismemberment ($2,000) and life insurance ($1,000)
- Free financial education resources available at alaskausa.org
- Free online financial calculators and helpful consumer information
- Certificate rate increase of .15 on any new certificate account
- Decrease of .15 on most new secured consumer loans

These benefits are subject to change and are not valid in conjunction with any other like offers. Credit cards and consumer loans are available on approval of credit. Other restrictions may apply.

Details

Cost – There is no cost for the Working Benefits program. However, there are low fees associated with processing payroll through Alaska USA UltraBranch Business Edition.

Employee eligibility – When an employee leaves your company, they are ineligible to take advantage of the Working Benefits program. However, any accounts or services already set up would remain open as long as that member desires. Employees who are relocating should be aware that Alaska USA membership can provide many benefits, even from afar.

Signing up

As long as your business meets the eligibility requirements, your eligible employees will receive the benefit automatically. As they begin to sign up for various services, they will receive the applicable benefits.

Getting the word out

Alaska USA can provide your business with a variety of materials that explain the benefits, including newsletter articles and templates for payroll stuffers, email messages, and posters.

Learn more

Visit any branch or alaskausa.org.

alaskausa.org

