

Domestic Wire Transfers

✔ Transfer funds within the U.S.

A wire transfer is an electronic delivery of funds between financial institutions participating in the Federal Reserve Bank's online network.

Hours of availability

Wire transfer requests must be completed by 12:30 p.m. Alaska time (1:30 p.m. Pacific time), Monday through Friday, excluding federal holidays, in order to be processed the same day. Requests completed after 12:30 p.m. Alaska time (1:30 p.m. Pacific time) will be processed the next business day.

The following information will be required for all domestic bank transfers:

- Your physical address
- Recipient's name
- Recipient's physical address
- Recipient's account number
- Name of recipient's bank
- Recipient bank's city and state location
- Recipient bank's Routing and Transit Number (RTN)

When sent within the U.S., wire transfers usually take 12-72 hours to arrive at the destination financial institution.

How to get started

At a branch

Wire transfers can be initiated at any branch location.

By phone

Domestic wire transfers can be initiated by phone through the Member Service Center if you are also the recipient.

Call (800) 525-9094.

alaskausa.org

NCUA Federally insured by NCUA

AlaskaUSA[®]
Federal Credit Union

AKUSA 02993 0118